

Peer Support and Consultation Group for Professional Signed Language Interpreters

Now welcoming members across the USA and Worldwide in 2015!

Peer Support and Consultation Project for Interpreters (PSCPI)

WHAT: 'Pah-Skippy' is a facilitated professional group created to offset vicarious trauma and compassion fatigue. We explore personal and professional effectiveness through uplifting, authentic and productive conversation.

WHO: Signed Language Interpreters who support and celebrate their peers

WHY: When we feel better, we work better. When we work better, we feel better.

WHEN: Monthly • 1st Thursday • 3:00-5:00 PM CST

Note: Jan. 2015
meeting date
TBD

HOW MUCH:

Before January 6th $264.00

Regular rate: $300 – Payable in monthly
CC Installments – CEUs may be arranged

• Space is Limited •

Some recent topics: Boundaries • Values • Self-Management • Self-Care • Self-knowledge • Vicarious Trauma • Compassion Fatigue • Resilience • Identity • Wholeness • Insight • Intuition • Empathy • Neuroscience • Mental Health Interpreting • Judgment • Confidence • Creativity • Boundaries • Feedback • Self-Sabotage • Linguistic and Conceptual Challenges •

Challenging Behaviors • Dual Relationships • Mental Illness • Therapeutic Goals and Professional Development • Work/Life Interpreting • Failure • Inner Dialogue • Perfectionism • Cultures • Vitality

This group meets via Zoom video in English.

Think this is for you? Contact Arlyn at Arlyn@wholeinterpreter.com
www.wholeinterpreter.com

Supportive Consultation
& Coaching Groups

You don't have to go it alone in the Interpreting field.